THE BEST LETTER

You may write a thousand letters to the maiden you adore,
And declare in every letter that you love her more and more,
You may praise her grace and beauty in a thousand glowing lines,
And compare her eyes of azure with the brightest star that shines.
If you had the pen of Byron you would use it every day
In composing written worship to your sweetheart far away,
But the letter far more welcome to an older, gentler breast
Is the letter to your mother from the boy she loves the best.

Youthful blood is fierce and flaming, and when writing to your love
You will rave about your passion, swearing by the stars above,
Vowing by the moon's white splendor that the girlie you adore
Is the one you'll ever cherish as no maid was loved before.
You will pen full many a promise on those pages white and dumb
That you never can live up to in the married years to come.
But a much more precious letter, bringing more and deeper bliss,
Is the letter to your mother from the boy she can not kiss.

She will read it very often when the lights are soft and low,
Sitting in the same old corner where she held you years ago,
And regardless of its diction or its spelling or its style,
And although its composition would provoke a critic's smile.
In her old and trembling fingers it becomes a work of art,
Stained by tears of joy and sadness as she hugs it to her heart,
Yes, the letter of all letters, look wherever you may roam,
Is the letter to your mother from her boy away from home.

Results of the Canopus Smoker

Morgan, of the Marine Barracks, knocked out Slicter, of the U. S. S. Canopus, former champion of the Asiatic Fleet, in the fourth round of their scheduled six-round bout last Friday night at the smoker given by the Canopus at the Navy Yard, Cavite. This was the main event of the evening and the result of this bout proved to be a great surprise to the entire audience. In the first round two wallops were passed, and one in the second. During the third round, Morgan let go with a short right to the chin and dropped Slicter for the count of eight, repeating it twice more in this round, the bell saving Slicter on the fourth time to the canvas. At the beginning of the fourth, Morgan met Slicter as he came out of his corner and applied the right and left to the head three or four times, knocking Slicter out for the count. Both men exhibited some of the cleaniest sportmanship that anyone would desire to witness. This is Slicter's last fight before returning to the States on the Chaumont. Slicter is now in the hospital but it is believed that his injuries are not dangerous or permanent.

The semi-final was fought between Padilla, All-Service champion of the Sixteenth Naval District, and Manansala, of the U S. S. Beaver, ex-Battle Fleet champion. This proved to be an interesting fight from start to finish, with Padilla winning the decision

The special event was featured by Harvey, All-Service champion bantamweigh of Fort Mills, and Leahy, of the U. S. Canopus. This was a very unpopular decision as most of the fans were of the opinion that Leahy should have had the decision. But the judges and referee were making the decisions and we have no right to put up any kicks on what they do, for they are filling some of the most unwelcome positions that there is to fill at a fight, and they desire clean sportmanship for the sake of the game.

The main preliminary was fought between Thomason, of the U. S. S. Canopus, ex-Fleet welterweight champion, and Jeffers, of the Marine Barracks. This fight was a last minute affair as the opponent that was originally scheduled to fight Thomason was thirteen pounds lighter than the weight called for, and someone had to be secured in a very short while. Jeffers is a beginner and knows very little about the fight game. He was not in training but exhibited exceptionally good fighting spirit. This was Jeffers' fourth time in the squared circle, but regardless of this fact, he gave Thomason a good run for his money until the fourth round when he was stretched out on the canvas twice for the count of eight. He received a technical knockout in the fifth round.

A special bout was arranged just prior to the smoker between MacDougall, of the U. S S Canopus, and Liesak, of the U. S. S. Gold Star. Liesak is the champion of Guam, but proved to be easy for MacDougall.

The second preliminary was fought between Taylor, of the U. S. S. Canopus, and Butterfield, of the U. S. S Paul Jones. This was the hardest fought battle of the evening, as these boys went from bell to bell without slowing down for anything. Taylor won the decision by a slight edge over Butterfield

The first preliminary was between Sykora and Giedrocz, but wasn't so hot, Giedrocz getting the decision.

The curtain raiser was between Colozze and Gray, the former winning the decision.

Two wrestling matches were also on the card, one between Badger and Pierce, and the other between White and Mitchell. Pierce won the first by top time, and White won the second by a fall.

This smoker was Slicter's and Leahy's last fight before returning to the States, and their faces will be missed during the remainder of the smokers held by the various ships. But it isn't to be forgotten by any means that these boys were two of the best sports in the Asiatic Fleet, and were always on hand and willing to put forth their best in anything for the betterment of the game.

Several thousand cigarettes were passed out to the entire audience during the evening and they were appreciated by all hands. We hope to witness another smoker soon, sponsored by the Canopus.

"U. S. S." Devil Dogs

Notwithstanding the fact that most of the odds are against us, we are planning on the coming of the "Chaumont" that we might make our abode somewhere west of east.

Tommie, the pugilist and X-chorus girl, Rector, the silent, and Lewis, the famous predecessor of the most notorious silver tongued T. Tumpken Kelley, are all in Olongapo for a week's vacation if you want to call it such. They are up there for the purpose of betterinz their already acquired knowledge in the field of expertmanship.

Our silver tongued orator is rather quiet here lately, wonder what has happened to him? Maybe his speech of good will and his inaugural address has drained from him all of the friskality that he formerly had when not being engaged in serious thought (about his girl).

Mr. Rabbie Rocka Andrew Moses Leviathon Abraham Major C. Eddie T. Winkle Parretti is still alive but you would never know it from the way he carries on here in the past week or so. What is wrong with you Rocka, are you still grieving over the little girl on the east side? If so, give one of the boys that are going home her address and I am sure they will be more than glad to call on her for you.

What is it that make Scottie and the moving picture machine so popular in the minds of the people? Leave it to Scottie and I am sure he can solve the problem all by himself.

Holy Pete has been blue all the week, because he was separated from his side kick Sactified Jim. Jim went to the Rifle Range and won't be back for a few days Cheer up Pete It won't be long now. However, if you can't cheer up, maybe you can get a few sympathy chits if you will call at the right place for them.

Famous last words: Come on Chaumont.

N. A. D. Defeated Seventeenth Division

The Naval Ammunition Depot ball team took the Seventeenth Division ball team in tow in a game played at the Yard ball diamond on Friday afternoon, 1 March, and let them down with a score of six to one Fidel started the game for the Depot as pitcher and Platon as catcher, but due the poor form that Fidel was showing, he was relieved by Quiris in the first of the fourth inning. Quiris pitched perfect ball for the remainder of the game and did not allow any runs during his stay on the mound. Rising was pitching for the Seventeenth and Watson of the Gold Star was catching. Rising proved to be anything but a pitcher for the occasion, and was relieved by Kulp in the fifth inning. At times Kulp seems to be a pitcher of number one calibre and proved to be in good form for this occasion. An error made by Provost on short stop was the cause of the first run for the Depot team and they seemed to take advantage of this and secured four of their six runs in the first inning.

Talk about the moans and groans! Plenty of these were given and issued during the game by one of the players on the Seventeenth Division team, and in the first of the fifth, he was put off the diamond by the referee for "crabbing." After his removal the remainder of the game was played without a murmer from anyone, so hereafter we expect to see this player on the field doing less "crabbing."

All-Americans Out for Practice

The All-Americans have been working out for the past two weeks getting into shape for the second half of the Baseball League series which begins this afternoon at Nozaleda Park, in Manila. Quite a few new comers have joined the team and it looks as though they are going to give their opponents a good run for the League pennant for the second half of the series. Cavite ball fans will get to witness some of these games on the ball diamond in the Navy Yard and it is expected to see some honest-to-goodness baseball in these games. It is hoped that the entire personnel of the Yard will turn out for these games and give the team 100% support as they have heretofore.

Fleet Athletic Medals Awarded

The athletic trophy and medals were presented to the Fleet boxing champions of the Sixteenth Naval District last Monday morning at ten o'clock by Admiral Bristol.

The presentation took place in front of the Comandancia. The Marine guard of honor and the Commandant's band were on hand to greet the Admiral and his staff on their arrival.

Fleet championship boxing medals were presented to Lewman and Lombard, of the Marine Barracks, by Admiral Bristol and were pinned on by Commander Carrol, the aid for Fleet athletics. After the medals were presented they were congratulated by Admiral Bristol for their victories. Padilla, another Fleet champion of the Sixteenth Naval District, who was to have been awarded the other medal, will not received his until the return of the Fleet from China waters.

The Admiral Bristol cup, emblematic of the Fleet boxing championship, was won jointly by the Sixteenth Naval District and Light Cruiser Division Two. It was presented to Rear-Admiral MacDougall by Admiral Bristol. After the completion of the presentation of the medals and trophy, Admiral Bristol and his Staff returned to the U. S. S Pittsburgh, Flagship, preparing for departure of the Fleet for China waters.

Marines Win

The Marines downed the Naval Ammunition Depot team last Thursday afternoon on the ball diamond at the Navy Yard to the count of two to one. Casanova was pitching for the Marines and seemed to be in perfect form, with Tangney catching. "Kid" Mandarin was pitching for the N. A. D's and pitched an exceptionally good game, with Charlie Platoon facing him from behind the bat. The N. A. D's got their run in the first inning This was made by an error by the Marines, but the Marines tightened down just at this stage of the game as they realized that it was going to be a bad day if the errors continued to show up. The Marines made their first run in the last part of the sixth when Morris was allowed to get on base by an error made by the second baseman of the N. A. D's, with Flagg knocking a three-base hit on the first ball pitched to him. The next man to the bat knocked a one-base hit and scored Flagg, giving the Marines a lead with one run. The game should have been a no run game, if it hadn't been for the fact that so many errors were made by the players on both sides. The game was enjoyed by every one and would have been one of the best of the season if both sides would have left out the errors.

Standing of Units for the General Excellence Trophy

The Sixteenth Naval District gets second place in the standing of units for the General Excellence trophy. This list is composed of baseball, soccer, basketball, rowing, sailing, boxing, wrestling, and swimming.

Tulsa's Team Out for Practice

The ball team of the Tulsa has been getting in some real strenuous workouts for the past few days and it is expected to see them in action soon. It looks as though they will give some of their opponents a good run for their money if they continue to show up as well as they have in the past few workouts. They will meet the Marines in a game on the diamond next Monday afternoon and it is expected to be an exceptionally good game.

Seventeenth Division Game

The Officers of the Seventeenth Division took the Chief Petty Officers in tow in a ball game played on the Cavite diamond last Wednesday afternoon. The game was more or less of a joke to all who witnessed it for both the Officers and C. P O's made more errors than could be counted on a Burroughs adding machine in almost a week's time.

Both teams were making them so fast that it was almost impossible to see all that were being made. There is one thing to mention about this game, neither side made any complaints to the umpire for the decisions that he was making and that is more than we are able to witness at most of the games. As a general rule there is at least one poor sport who will pipe up every now and then as to how he would have called the play.

PRESIDENT HOOVER'S FIRST ADDRESS

The high lights of Herbert Hoover's first address as President of the United States are printed that our readers may understand his attitude toward certain great National problems. The following quotations are from an Associated Press despatch of 4 March, 1929, to the MANILA DAILY BULLETIN.

PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT

Turning to the enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment President Hoover asserted that, "The large responsibility rests directly on the citizens. The duty of the citizens to support the law is coequal with the duty of the government to enforce the law."

WORLD COURT

Asserting that the United States not only desires peace with the world, but desires to see peace maintained throughout the world, President Hoover expressed hope for ultimate American adherence to the World Court. He declared that the acceptance of the recent treaty for the renunciation of war "should pave the way for the greater limitation of armament offer which we sincerely extended to the world."

NATIONAL DEFENSE

National defense was treated in a single line—"Peace can be contributed to by respect for our ability in defense."

FARMERS' RELIEF

The President said that further agricultural relief and "limited changes in the tariff cannot, in justice to our farmers, be postponed," adding that he would request a special session of congress for the consideration of these questions.

PUBLIC EDUCATION

He endorsed government co-operation in the stimulation of education.

Look Out for Dogs

On Thursday the Marine Guard at the Main Gate observed a black dog acting suspiciously and attempting to snap at one of the workmen. The dog's end was swift and sure. Two hours later his head was on the laboratory table being examined for rabies.

After it was definitely determined that the dog had been a victim of hydrophobia the Constabury was informed. As it is known that he bit more than one other Cavite dog before he was caught it is suggested that all hands cooperate in reporting any other dogs acting suspiciously near the Yard. Make any such report to the guard at the Main Gate or the Captain of the Yard's Office.
